Thanks to God and to all of you who made our Parish Fall Festival an amazing event. Thanks to the parishioners and ministry groups, the parish and school staff, teachers, parents and students, and the many volunteers for their work and leadership. Thanks to the crew that grilled the chicken, the parishioners who baked, did crafts, or canned homemade jelly, and anyone who donated and shared their talents. Thanks to the farmers, dairy families, individuals and businesses who donated to the live and silent auction, or sponsored one of our tents. Thank you!

I also want to thank Stephen Candelario, one of our parishioners who in the last weeks has painted by himself all the white lines and handicapped signs on our church parking lot. Thanks for that dedication and service.

Gracias a Dios y a todos ustedes que hicieron de nuestro festival un maravilloso evento. Gracias a todos los parroquianos y grupos parroquiales, así como al personal de la oficina y escuela, los maestros, padres de familia y estudiantes por su liderazgo y trabajo. Gracias a las personas que hicieron el pollo asado, a los parroquianos que hornearon, hicieron manualidades o mermeladas caseras, y por todos los que donaron y compartieron sus talentos. Gracias a los granjeros, lecherías, personas y negocios que donaron los premios de las subastas en silencio y en vivo, comida y productos, o patrocinaron alguna de nuestras tiendas. ¡Mil gracias! También quiero agradecer a Stephen Candelario, miembro de nuestra parroquia que durante las últimas semanas ha pintado el solo todas las líneas blancas y letreros de discapacitados del estacionamiento de la iglesia. Gracias por esa dedicación y servicio.

Let us offer our lives in service and in joy, to make known to everyone that Jesus Christ is our only hope!

Ofrezcamos nuestras vidas en el servicio y la alegría, para hacer saber a todos que Jesucristo es nuestra única esperanza.

My Dear People of God,

The midterm elections on November 6 are approaching. Now is an ideal time for us to familiarize ourselves with the document: “Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship.” This document will assist the laity in educating and encouraging all of us of the importance of forming our consciences as we fulfill our civic duty at the voting booth. It will encourage all of us, clergy and laity, of the importance of living our Faith and joining our voices “out in the marketplace.” Considering the very divisive political climate of our day, we have the great opportunity to participate in a workshop on “Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship” to be held on October 1. I have invited Steve Pehanich, Director of Communications and Advocacy from the California Catholic Conference, to facilitate the event.

As mentioned, because of the quickly approaching midterm elections, this is a timely opportunity for all of us to participate in this workshop. For this reason, my hope is that the faithful, along with the clergy, will make the effort to attend this workshop. This would benefit each and every one of us. Quoting Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, His Holiness, Pope Francis reminds us: “If indeed the just ordering of society and of the state is a central responsibility of politics, the Church cannot and must not remain on the sidelines in the fight for justice.”

The workshop will be held on Monday, October 1. Schedule: 6:30 PM to 8:30 PM St. Frances of Rome 2827 Topeka Street in Riverbank in the Parish Hall To register, please email Patti Ianni: pianni@stocktondiocese.org or for further questions contact Msgr. John Armistead or Digna Ramirez at the Pastoral Center 209.466.0636 In advance, I extend my gratitude for your serious consideration to this invitation and for your attendance at this workshop. Please mark your calendars there is no fee for this event. See you in Riverbank on October 1!

In the Peace of Christ,
Bishop Myron J. Cotta

Un Mensaje del Obispo

Mi Querido Pueblo de Dios,
Las elecciones de mitad de periodo del 6 de noviembre se acercan. Ahora es un momento ideal para que los laicos, clérigos y los fieles, sobre la importancia de vivir nuestra Fe y unir nuestras voces "afuera en el mundo mercantil". Teniendo en cuenta el clima político muy divisivo de nuestros días, tenemos la gran oportunidad de participar en un taller sobre "Formar la Conciencia para ser Ciudadanos Fieles" que se llevará a cabo el 1 de octubre. He invitado a Steve Pehanich, Director de Comunicaciones y Abogacía de la Conferencia Católica de California, para facilitar el evento. Como se mencionó, debido a las próximas elecciones de mitad de periodo, esta es una puntual oportunidad para que todos participemos de este taller. Por esta razón, mi esperanza es que los fieles, junto con el clero,igan el esfuerzo de asistir a este taller. Esto beneficiaría a todos y cada uno de nosotros. Citando al Papa Emérito Benedicto XVI, Su Santidad, el Papa Francisco nos recuerda: "Si en verdad el ordenamiento justo de la sociedad y del Estado es una responsabilidad central de la política, la Iglesia no puede y no debe permanecer al margen en la lucha por la justicia".

El taller se llevará a cabo el lunes 1 de octubre. Horario: 6:30 p.m. a 8:30 p.m. Santa Francisca de Roma 2827 Topeka Street en Riverbank - Salón parroquial. Para registrarse, envíe un correo electrónico a Patti Ianni: piani@stocktondiocese.org o para mas información favor de contactarse con Monseñor John Armistead o a Digna Ramirez-Lopez al Centro Pastoral, 209.466.0636. De antemano, extiendo mi gratitud por su seria consideración a esta invitación y por su asistencia a este taller. Por favor marquen sus calendarios este evento es gratuito. ¡Nos vemos en Riverbank el 1 de octubre!

En la Paz de Cristo,
Obispo Myron J. Cotta
