The parable of the vineyard

This parable of the landowner who planted a vineyard teaches us that God holds us accountable for the blessings that have been bestowed on us. To put it bluntly, God expects some return on the investment he makes in our lives. All God asks is that we give something back to the kingdom of God.

Before we talk about giving something back to God, we need to ask ourselves: do I accept that everything I have is a gift from God? Or do I think that everything I have has been earned with my own effort and nothing has been given to me by anyone else but myself?

Let there be no mistake, everything we are and everything we have is a gift from God. By acknowledging this, we can then reflect on what am I giving back to God in thanksgiving for what He has given me.

In the gospel, we heard that “he sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce”, what are we going to give Him when He comes?

We have been entrusted with so much, our family, our marriage, our children, our faith, our community, our Church. What have we done to produce fruits that are pleasing to the Lord? Do I generously share my time, my talents and my treasure in proportion to what I have received? Have I forgiven those who have offended me? Do I consistently spend time talking with God in prayer?

Be prepared, says the Lord, for at an hour you do not expect the Son of Man will come.

Deacon José Reyes

La parábola del viñedo

Esta parábola del terrateniente que plantó un viñedo nos enseña que Dios nos hace responsables de las bendiciones que se nos han otorgado. Para decirlo claramente, Dios espera alguna ganancia de la inversión que hace en nuestras vidas. Todo lo que Dios pide es que devolvamos algo al reino de Dios.

Antes de hablar de devolver algo a Dios, debemos preguntarnos: ¿acepto que todo lo que tengo es un regalo de Dios? ¿O pienso que todo lo que tengo lo he ganado con mi propio esfuerzo y que nadie más me ha dado nada?

Que no haya duda, todo lo que somos y todo lo que tenemos es un don de Dios. Al reconocer esto, podemos reflexionar sobre qué le estoy devolviendo a Dios en acción de gracias por lo que Él me ha dado.

En el evangelio, oímos que "envió a sus criados para pedir su parte de los frutos a los viñadores", ¿qué le daremos cuando venga?

Se nos ha confiado tanto: nuestra familia, nuestro matrimonio, nuestros hijos, nuestra fe, nuestra comunidad, nuestra Iglesia. ¿Qué hemos hecho para producir frutos que agraden al Señor? ¿Comparto generosamente mi tiempo, mis talentos y mi tesoro en proporción a lo que he recibido? ¿He perdonado a quienes me han ofendido? ¿Paso tiempo constantemente hablando con Dios en oración?

Estén preparados, dice el Señor, porque a la hora en que menos lo piensen vendrá el Hijo del Hombre.

Diácono José Reyes
